Alfred R. Brunetti is a seasoned counselor who guides clients through the increasingly complex matrix of data privacy and security laws, regulations and guidance impacting business across all industries. Fred combines his in-depth knowledge of existing and emerging privacy laws and best practices with his extensive nationwide litigation and compliance experience to regularly advise clients, both large and small, on all manner of data privacy issues relating to the collection, processing and management of personal information throughout its life cycle.

He leads the firm's Data Privacy Practice Group and is certified by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) as both a Certified Information Privacy Professional in the laws of the United States (CIPP/US), a designation evidencing information privacy expertise with advanced concentration in domestic private sector laws, and a Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM), a designation evidencing expertise in the creation and management of a comprehensive privacy program.

Fred began his legal career as a law clerk for the Hon. Elaine L. Davis, P.J. Crim., in Hudson County, NJ, and then as an assistant prosecutor in the Union County Prosecutor's Office in Elizabeth, NJ. He is a graduate of Seton Hall University and Seton Hall University School of Law, where he was an award-winning member of the Interscholastic Moot Court Board.
